Sightseeing

1. Frühlingsfest:

the Spring-Festival is Oktoberfest's little sister. From May 17th to May 11th, festival tents and fairground attractions on the Theresienwiese provide that Oktoberfest feeling in spring.

To get to Theresienwiese just turn left at the Tumblingerstraße/Zenettstraße crossing and walk along Zenettstraße to the end (approx. 12 minutes)

- ### 2. Marienplatz (Main square in the city centre where the town hall stands) - Viktualienmarkt (large, 200-year-old market with over 100 stalls selling a variety of products such as fruit, meat and flowers) - Frauenkirche (Gothic church with 2 towers and the famous "Teufelstritt" aka The Devil's Footprint) - Alter Peter (Munich's oldest church with the decorated skeleton of St. Mundita and a tower overlooking the city)

- ### 3. Odeonsplatz (Spacious square from the 19th century) - Theatinerkirche (Catholic baroque church) - Hofgarten (city park, which was the court garden of the princely residence in the 17th century)

volkstheater

4. Englischer Garten (large city park with cycle/jogging track and beer garden by the lake) - Chinese Tower - Eisbach wave (artificial standing wave in the Eisbach river in the English Garden, which can be surfed all year round - currently, however, it is shut down (on-off)).

5. Olympiapark (Venue of the 1972 Olympic Games, today an extensive Olympic site with a stadium, Sea Life Centre and a large park)

6. Isar
(The best river <3)

7. Theresienwiese (fairground in Munich, where the Oktoberfest has been held every year since 1810, Bavaria – statue of Bavaria, the patron saint of Munich)

8. Schloss Nymphenburg (large castle complex with rococo furniture, carriage collection and baroque gardens; lovely walk along the Nymphenburg Canal to the palace and into the palace gardens.)

9. Hop on Hop off Bus-Tour: Sightseeing-Tour durch München
